

WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

4TH ANNUAL VT KNOWLEDGEWORKS ENTREPRENEURSHIP CHALLENGE

Open Business Concept Competition

UIU Link, winner of the 2012 Open Business Concept Competition: Operational in CRC. 4 employees. $750,000 in private funding. UIU Link is an aggregation platform serving as the national brokerage house for traditional accredited online courses with available course seats.

Student Business Concept Competition

YouFolio, winner of the 2012 Student Business Concept Competition: YouFolio enables people to establish their online brand through the use of a dynamic online portfolio platform. The venture received over $250,000 in funding from angel investors in August 2013 and launched their website in January 2014. Since launch, YouFolio has been partnering with universities and employers in the greater Washington D.C. area. Students and individuals on YouFolio use examples of work and multimedia to help bring their resumes to life and showcase value to employers. YouFolio just recently launched their iOS app, which can be found in the Apple store today!

Tech Transfer Challenge

VoltMed, winner of the 2012 Tech Transfer Challenge: VoltMed has submitted an NSF STTR Phase II proposal to support further development/commercialization of its technology as a treatment for pancreatic cancer.